The logo of Church Women United is a circle with the exploding sun at the center. The rays suggest the dynamic force, vitality and life of the sun as our source of light and from Jesus, the Son, and our Source of Enlightenment. The rays also indicate movement, action and power; a coming and going as God's people return to the Source for strength and then go out into the world in mission. The texture and richness of the rays symbolize the qualities that Christian women can contribute to the world. Texture relates to the way constituent parts are woven together. So it is that in Church Women United, Christian women from diverse backgrounds unite in a way that provides body and fullness for witness in a pluralistic, changing society.

Who We Are

Mission Statement

Church Women United of Great Cincinnati is an ecumenical, racially and culturally inclusive Christian woman's movement, celebrating diversity and working for a world of peace and justice.

Church Women United is an ecumenical expression of Christian women of many denominations who come together in fellowship to study, speak and act on conditions and issues in the community. These involve moral, ethical and spiritual principals inherent in the Christian gospel to deepen commitment to Jesus Christ and his teachings.

Fellowship of the Least Coin

"In the spirit of sisterhood, we will act to facilitate, praise and celebrate building God's Kingdom."

What We Do

CWU has been impassioned by the Holy Spirit to serve in many capacities through the years. CWU was founded in 1941, with Cincinnati's chapter joining in 1971 after 60 years of providing safe and reliable support for working families in our own city. In the early 1900s, daycare was needed for mothers who worked in factories. Christian communities came together to help young girls who needed shelter through the justice system.

Through the following ministries, we provide support for a variety of programs benefiting women and children:

Hamilton County Juvenile Court Youth Center –

CWU provides volunteers to lead Bible studies, discussions and prayer leading to life changing experiences.

Peaslee Neighborhood Center – CWU provides supplies and on-going support for educational needs which include gardening, photography, art, piano and steel drums.

Council of Christian Communion – CWU has assisted the Council through Linking Families Together, a bus ministry that transports families to see their incarcerated loved ones in prison; serves as ambassador for the Council through area churches; and provides opportunities for churches to join CCC's Partnering for Youth programs to recruit mentors and tutors for youth in organizations in Greater Cincinnati.

CWU assists Power Inspiring Progress; Interfaith Hospitality Network for homeless families; the Women's Connection in Price Hill, Eve Center, and Bethany House.

Members of CWU also support a parents group for the rehabilitation of the historic Rothenberg school in Cincinnati's Over-the-Rhine and the Fellowship of the Least Coin. Other groups and agencies are considered upon request. Finally, CWU works in concert with other local agencies to lift up and provide on-going assistance to many who struggle.
